

Hi-Lites Of Seaside Heights

By GRAYCE RYCKMAN
Frontier 5-1779

Gee, I was sure sorry to miss my weekly chat with all you neighbors, but along with about 2 1/2ths of the Height's population, the cold bug got me too. So I start my New Year a little late.

Better late than never, I feel, is a special vote of thanks to Mrs. Charles Lumsden of 5238 Bindewald road, for her wonderful song leadership at our Christmas Tree songfest, December 23. So many of the Brownie Mothers, and others, at the tree gathering asked me to use this method to say "thank you, Gertrude Lumsden, you were grand."

As for a bad start in the New Year—have you seen Curly Herbst of Vanderhill? One might say he fell into 1952. Seriously, Curly fell (New Year's Eve) into one of the holes dug to connect a sewer, and is still slipping badly from a sprained left knee. Our sympathy and wish for a quick recovery.

The news on our neighbor, Arthur Howe, of Vanderhill, who was so badly injured when he was hit by a car last month, is not too good. He is conscious but unable to talk. He recognizes people but cannot yet have visitors, except family. He is still definitely on the critical list—so let's all offer a prayer for him now.

Today was the first of four two hour classes in a nutritional course sponsored by the Torrance PTA. Adelle Davis, well known authority on nutrition, is conducting these classes and they are being given in conjunction with a dental program being set up in Torrance. It is felt that dental treatments are useless unless the basis of poor dental health (nutrition) is also treated. Everyone is invited to attend the remaining meetings. If you want or can offer transportation, call Mrs. Dorsey Gruver, FR. 5-1681, of 5411 Carol drive. The classes are being held at the Fern avenue school auditorium.

Don't forget—tonight is the January meeting of the Seaside PTA. This is the Father's night program and a special feature by the fathers is planned. Los Cancioneros will sing—they are always good, and a representative from the Los Angeles Police department will give a lecture with illustrative films. The room prize will go to the room having the most fathers present. So come on, it sounds like a swell program, let's meet at the Seaside auditorium at 8 p.m.

Macafee road has had a few new faces recently, and in getting their names I met some awfully nice people. At 5013, the new family is Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Patterson (Betty) and two real nice boys, Jeff, age 10 and Jay, age 8. They just recently moved from Hermosa Beach and are all keyed up about getting a new lawn in, and flowers and shrubs. If you haven't already stopped and said "Howdy," try it. You'll be glad you did. Mr. Patterson works at Northrup.

Then at 5133, right on the corner, Mrs. G. Littlefield. She is very friendly and is also an aircraft employee—North American.

Jo Jurisich was sure proud last week when she started out her bridge year by winning in duplicate. She played at the Redondo Women's Club. She should also be mighty proud of the new thermostat-controlled, blower type heating system her husband installed in their home at 5225 Bindewald. It is really a honey.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bundgarde and son, Ray, of 5116 Zakon, and daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Kahn, had a wonderful trip and overnight stay at Idyllwild just after Christmas.

Books, books, books! Do any of you have any books that you can donate, or loan to the Seaside School Library? Golden books, pocket books, regular books! They are badly needed, and will be greatly appreciated. If you have any, you can call me or bring them to me at 5229 Bindewald. Or you can contact Mrs. Schockency, FR 4-974, 23033 Doris Way.

For several weeks now I've been hearing rumors of a Bible Class being conducted in the Heights. Tracing it down, I found it true, and wonderful. Mrs. Lola Richards is taking children into her home on Saturdays at 3 p.m. and teaching them passages from the Bible in a nonsectarian, nondenominational form. After the child has attended five times she gives him (or her) a Bible of his own. She has a good size group now, but her door is open to any and all. That is 5241 Vanderhill road.

And in the same nonsectarian, nondenominational form, Mrs. Isabel Phillip, 5128 Macafee road, is conducting Bible Classes for the grownups who wish such knowledge. Her classes are on Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. Or if you cannot get there by that time, come when you can. I think both of these women deserve our deepest respect and gratitude.

As I sit here jotting down these news items and coughing and coughing, I think of the story of the frog that said, "I can't say much more, I have a man in my throat."

New First Aid Class to Start In Adult School

A free First Aid class will be held each Tuesday night from 7 to 9 starting January 15, at the Seaside Elementary School (Seaside Ranchos, off Highway 101 in Torrance).

Bill Stidham, of the Los Angeles County Life Guard Service, will handle the class. Stidham has trained thousands of first aiders during the past year alone—many of them for the Torrance Adult School.

The course will feature atomic warfare and health protection, care of children, burns, bruises, fractures, treatment of common everyday illnesses, and accidents.

One high light of the course will be the showing of films of the atomic bomb with instructions as to how to prevent personal injury.

Another feature will be the introduction of the Hoegler-Nielsen system of artificial respiration which is now being widely used by many in place of the older Schafer method.

TEGA to Discuss Bond Brochure

Suggestions for a bond brochure to aid in the coming school bond election will be solicited from members of the Torrance Educational Advisory Committee when they meet at the Ding How Cafe next Monday noon, January 14, according to Mrs.

Grace Wright, moderator of the group. The members will also hear a discussion of social studies in the curriculum, she said. Reservations can be made by calling the administrative office of the school at Torrance 2111.

Pacific Electric Grants Wage Hike

A cost-of-living wage increase of 4 cents per hour for 2900 Pacific Electric employees, including nearly 300 employed in the repair shops here, effective January 1, was announced by L. R. McIntire, manager of personnel.

Not included are 1800 trainmen and motor coach operators whose request for a wage increase is being negotiated, with the next conference scheduled on January 14. The wage boost is authorized for all other employees under existing labor agreements and for all non-operating employees not covered by agreements.

This increase brings to 31 cents per hour the wage adjustments for Pacific Electric employees under the cost-of-living allowance since April 1, 1951.

and will hike the company's payroll $22,000 per month, McIntire said.
